The integrity of the upright guides them, but the crookedness of the treacherous destroys them.

— Proverbs 11:3

Why is it important to "cultivate integrity?"

To cultivate means "to try to acquire or develop (a quality, sentiment, or skill)."

- Therefore, "cultivating integrity" requires the resolve and determination to consistently engage one's energy and effort in being honest, forthright, responsible, and trustworthy through the power and grace of our Lord Jesus Christ.
- In order to experience the fullness of God's divine influence, supernatural blessings, and precious promises in our lives and legacy, we must ensure every interaction is an intentional and accurate representation of His Character and Nature by living according to God's standards and principles.
- We should want our relationships, businesses, and even social interactions to reflect the healing virtue and wholeness that can only be found in the Kingdom of God through a personal relationship with Jesus Christ.

PROPHETESS ANGELA LAING

event speaker

As a mother responding to her daughter's woes of transitioning into womanhood, Angela recognized the internal struggles with social acceptance, self-esteem, and embracing one's own beauty that she also experienced. Unfortunately, many minority girls and women fall prey to unrealistic idealisms and impractical standards that say beauty can only be deemed a certain way. This inspired Angela's mission to debunk societal misconceptions and extinguish the fires of cultural pressures within the hearts and minds of women of all ages.

Angela's purpose and passionate approach fuel her dedication to impact, inspire and ignite young girls and women globally by sharing her transparent experiences with education, innovation, and reformation.

With over 15 years in the health care industry, Angela pursues her mission by gaining knowledge through her psychology studies towards her Bachelor's Degree at Regent University of Virginia Beach, VA.

Pastor Traci L Chisholm, purposefully named with the initials of Tender Love and Care by her parents, Bishop James, and Pastor Vernetta Chisholm, is a senior assistant pastor, certified life coach, worship leader, songwriter, former radio personality, and serial entrepreneur and daily Christian Morning Show Host that is widely impacting her community with an inspiring message of hope.

Her mobilizing and magnetic ministry techniques portray the diversity of her gifts and talents that are now being displayed on various media outlets across the internet. In 2009, Pastor Traci became one of the only 67 African American Women in America to graduate with a degree in Physics. The pastor spent the beginning of her professional career as a Nuclear Engineer for the Department of Defense before resigning in 2014 to pursue full-time ministry as a pastor, recording artist, and Christian entrepreneur. She attributes her extensive science, math, and technology background to the STEM of her faith, for it was in her intriguing love for the study of the galaxies that she fell passionately for its Author and Creator, Jesus Christ. Complimenting her 6ft stature, this faith giant is the founder of a non-profit organization for minority girls, The Crowned Academy 501 C-3, and the CEO of Woman Gone Warrior Worldwide Network, an empowerment empire and production company dedicated to waking up wounded women to rise as winning warriors in the battlefield of everyday life. Most recently, she has launched WGW Cosmetics with the release of her 30 Shade EyeShadow Palette “ Eyes Have Not Seen” 1 Corinthians 2:9. It is Chapter 1 that tells the War Stories of 12 Overcoming Warrior Women.

Her many philanthropic pursuits awarded her as the Community Service Woman of the Year for Woman Empowered of Portsmouth, Virginia ACHI nominee for the past 4 years and Community Service Honoree for Christian Girls Rock VA. Pastor Traci, the Messenger, the Midwife, and the Mobilizer, is a graduate of Regent University Seminary, where she obtained a Master's Degree in Practical Theology with a concentration in marketplace ministry.
